Help give your paycheck the protection that life may not provide.

Every second, a disabling injury changes someone’s life.¹ Accidents are not the only cause of a disability. Back pain, heart disease and other illnesses are the reasons for a majority of long-term absences,² and can happen to anyone.

Whatever the cause, a disability can mean months out of work, without a paycheck. But with Long-term Disability Insurance (LTD) from The Hartford, available through your employer, you can help protect your income and continue to provide for yourself and your loved ones.

You protect your car and health. Help protect your income, too.

Your paycheck, as well as your ability to earn one, is your lifeline.

Did you know:

• More than half of wage earners believe they have little chance of being disabled for three months or more during their working careers.³
• The actual odds of becoming disabled for a worker entering the workforce today are about 30 percent.⁴

Minus a steady income, you could risk getting behind on bills like:

• Rent.
• Mortgage.
• Car payment.
• Tuition.
• And utilities, just to name a few.

But LTD benefits help you pay for daily necessities while staying current with all you’ve worked hard for. Even if you become disabled long-term.

Keep in mind that LTD is designed to help protect your income. Then consider these facts:

- Health insurance only covers medical bills. It won't pay for groceries or rent.

- The average monthly Social Security benefit for a disabled worker in 2010 was $1,065.\(^6\) Plus, it takes about five months for SSDI to kick in.

Protection that does some heavy lifting.

Here’s what you can expect from LTD coverage:

- It can cover you after a serious accident or a serious illness.
- It delivers a percentage of your income each month.
- It also offers professional help for disability-related challenges from legal specialists, and financial and therapeutic counselors.
- Thanks to group rates through your employer, it's affordable.
